

LCMS Foundation – Custodian profile

The Northern Trust Company (Custodian)

Northern Trust Corporation is a multibank holding company based in Chicago. Northern has two major business segments: Personal Financial Services and Corporate and Institutional Services. Northern Trust Global Investments provides investment products and services to each of these two primary business units. The Northern Trust Company is a leading custodial bank with assets under custody of $3.7 trillion. Northern Trust has earned distinction as being an industry leader in combining personal service and expertise with innovative products and technology.